and a programme will be given in the evening. The meeting will be held in the Bishop's rooms in the Bishop's house at 3 o'clock. The programme will include besides the addresses, a number of patriotic musical selections. The committee in charge are Vice-Rogents Emma C. Wile and Julia F. Lund. The Secretary is Clara Y. Spencer. The organization of the junior patriotic society, Mrs. Julia F. Lund, states that about thirty applications in all have been taken out, and it is expected that the membership will increase within a short time. The state society set Saturday afternoon to select representatives to the meeting of the national convention, which takes place in Atlantic City, N. J. during the week beginning May 9.

The last of a series of meetings of the Thursday Luncheon club was held on Thursday afternoon at the apartments of Mrs. R. W. Hill in the Cathiness. The prizes for the series of games were awarded to Mrs. T. B. Atkinson, Mrs. W. H. Weaver, Mrs. George R. Raymond and Mrs. W. H. Hill. The rooms were prettily decorated with vases of dog-tooth violets. The meetings have proved so delightful that another series will be started.

Mrs. S. L. Billings entertained the members of the Plate club Thursday afternoon at a luncheon served at 1 o'clock at her home in South Eleventh street. Spring flowers adorned the tables and the afternoon's prize was won by Mrs. J. W. Lynch, with a hostess prize presented to Mrs. Billings.

The members of Spirit of Liberty chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and a few guests, were delightfully entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Seth Morrison at her home in Seventh East street. An interesting programme was given under the direction of Mrs. Frank B. Spinks, including a paper on "Zora Gale and Her Writings," given by Mrs. J. C. Darr, who has long held the reputation of being one of the most competent readers in Salt Lake club circles. Mrs. C. C. Parsons, Jr., gave two beautiful vocal solos, after which Miss Edith Farnsworth was heard in an instrumental selection. At the close of the excellent programme, the social hour was in the nature of an afternoon tea. Mrs. Morrison assisted in the dining room and Mrs. R. C. Gemmel and Mrs. C. E. Allen poured tea and coffee at the tea table, which had for its attractive center decoration a cut-glass vase of American beauty roses. Assisting in serving were Mrs. C. P. Overholser, Mrs. A. H. Peabody, Mrs. C. C. Parsons, Jr., Miss Decker and Miss Farnsworth. The drawing room, library and reception hall were artistically adorned with a profusion of fruit blossoms and pink carnations.

Mrs. H. W. Sherman entertained the members of the Opal Five Hundred club in a pleasant manner Thursday afternoon, when red and yellow tulips were the spring-like decorations. The prizes were won by Mrs. M. M. Evans and Mrs. F. J. McGanney. Later a delightful luncheon was served.

The Monday Night club met Monday evening with Mrs. H. M. Root at her home, 337 South Second West street. Joseph Lippman gave a most interesting talk on "Psychic Research," after the programme and business meeting was over, a delightful supper was served.

The Daughters of Veterans were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Emma Ramsey Morris at her home, 127 South Second West street, Monday night. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and music. Mrs. Morris giving several beautiful vocal selections. In the evening a delicious supper was served in the dining-room, which was beautiful with an array of daffodils and roses, while the halls and parlors were prettily decorated with American flags and carnations.

A pleasant social and musical event was one Tuesday evening, when the Orpheus club, under the direction of the Orpheus club, Professor A. H. Peabody, appeared before the pupils of Rowland Hall, giving a varied and delightful programme in the assembly hall. The courtesy extended by the high class musical organization was much appreciated by Miss Colburne and the faculty, as well as by the pupils.

The Quinquenta Card club was pleasantly entertained Tuesday afternoon by

J. B. BERKHOEL.

Manager Berkhoel Music Company, who will open their piano display rooms next Wednesday at 44 East Third South street, Colonial Theatre building. They are the factory representatives of "The House of Baldwin." The Baldwin Piano was awarded the Grand Prix (double gold medal) by the international jury at the Exposition Universelle at Paris, 1900. This constitutes the highest criterion of merit known today. This particular distinction is conferred only when, in the opinion of the jury, composed of representative experts from all countries, the exhibit reaches the highest standard of excellence and represents achievements of superior value. The question of competition does not enter in at all. In addition to this honor the "Baldwin" had the unusual distinction of being decorated by the

Mrs. T. E. Newman at her home. The rooms where the five tables of bridge were played were prettily adorned with vases and bowls of daffodils and hyacinths. The prizes of the afternoon were won by Mrs. C. H. Heritage, Mrs. J. H. Burdwell and Miss Herman.

The Tuesday Afternoon Card club was entertained Tuesday afternoon by Miss Wanda Pratt, who was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mamie Thornberg and Miss Vera Griffin. The prizes of the afternoon were given to Miss Cummings and Miss Hazel Dorius.

The Sons of the American Revolution will give their annual banquet at the University club April 19, the date being the anniversary of the battle of Lexington. The committee on arrangements is composed of M. L. Ritchie, J. Walcott Thompson, C. P. Overfield, C. P. Crawford and Harold B. Stephens.

The Canadian association met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Morningstar, 127 East South Temple street. The plans for a banquet, which is to be given next month, were discussed, after which the remainder of the evening was passed in games and music. Refreshments were served in the dining room, which was beautiful in an array of apple blossoms.

The Woman's club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. U. G. Moser, with Mrs. John H. Powers as chairman. It being Federation day, Mrs. C. E. Allen, Mrs. C. H. McMahon and Mrs. Leonard Bailey spoke in the interests of the Federation, after which Miss Grace Sullivan gave a piano solo.

The members of the Crystal club were delightfully entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. W. W. Rivers at her apartments in the Smith. The afternoon meeting will be held with Mrs. George Brice Wednesday afternoon at her home on South Temple street. A one o'clock luncheon will be served.

A meeting of the Ladies' Literary club will be held Friday afternoon at the club house. A paper will be given by Mrs. E. O. Leatherwood on "The Spirit of the Age and the Early Church," after which Superintendent Christensen will speak on some proposed changes in the public school curriculum. Several musical selections will also be given. Every one interested in the work is cordially invited to be present.

The Woman's league will hold its regular monthly meeting in Unity hall April 18 at 2:30 o'clock. Dr. Katherine Eager will speak on "City Hygiene," after which Mrs. Berg will speak on "Temperance."

Mrs. P. G. Hampson entertained the members of the Jolly Twelve Friday afternoon at her home in honor of her guest, Miss Ethel Plant of Sacramento, Cal. Vases of roses were the pretty decorations. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. L. M. Foote and Miss Plant.

Mrs. R. M. Broden proved herself a charming hostess Friday afternoon, when she entertained the members of her card club. After cards, a dainty luncheon was served, the decorations in the dining-room being in daffodils. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. W. D. Foster and Mrs. Duckworth.

The Woman's Bridge club of Fort Douglas was pleasantly entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. Owen A. Seeman at her quarters in officers' row. The prizes of the afternoon were awarded to Mrs. T. R. Harker and Mrs. W. A. McDaniel.

The Past Noble Grand club held a cake sale at Keith-O'Brien's Saturday.

The P. E. O. society met Saturday afternoon with Mrs. M. E. Idle at her apartments in the Walsh, when the plans for the coming year were discussed.

The history section of the Ladies' Literary club met Thursday morning in the club house at 10:15 o'clock. The meeting was of unusual interest, the topic of the meeting being a paper by Mrs. E. O. Leatherwood on "The Beginning of the Decline of Rome."

Mr. C. E. W. Griffith of Chicago, a reader of Shakespeare, rendered Dan-mann's "Divina Comedia" in a most able manner at St. Mary's school Thursday afternoon. The study hall was filled with students of the school, also many friends and patrons who were anxious to hear the noted reader.

The Pan-Hellenic society met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. B. W. Lawson and Mrs. F. J. Gustin. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in a social chat, and later a luncheon was served. The decorations were in apple blossoms.

The regular monthly meeting of the Nauvoo Legion was held Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the Bishop's building after the regular business of the meeting, an interesting programme was given as follows: I. D. Airmot, recitation; John Butte, song; William M. Brown, recitation; John Clark, humorous reading; W. J. Cough, song; presidential remarks. After the meeting dainty refreshments were served, the decorations being in carnations and ferns.

In the April number of the "Federation Bulletin for the Woman of Today," the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs extends a cordial greeting to all officers, speakers, delegates and alternates, also visiting club women to the tenth biennial of the General Federation of Women's clubs, to be held in Cincinnati, May 10-18, 1910, and invites them to be present at a concert to be given Tuesday evening, May 10, by the Cincinnati Symphony orchestra under the leadership of Leopold Stokowski in the music hall. The Ohio Federation also invites all club women to be present at an "at home" in the assembly room of the Sinton hotel, Wednesday afternoon, May 11, from 3 to 6 o'clock.

The hotel committee of the local biennial board is now located at 612 West Sixth street, Cincinnati, Ohio, and all should be addressed to that office. The hotel Sinton, official headquarters. Fourth and Vine streets, can not take additional guests, as it has contracted with the biennial delegates for the use of all its rooms from May 10 to 18. Nevertheless, the hotel committee has ample accommodations at its command and all applications should be made at once.

At the last meeting of the Wasatch Literary club which was held at the home of Mrs. H. A. King, the annual election of officers was held as follows: Mrs. E. Haubert, president; Mrs. Earl Dunshie, vice-president; Mrs. W. H. Tanney, treasurer; Mrs. Robert E. Steele, recording secretary; Mrs. W. A. Wight, assistant secretary; Mrs. A. S. Zimmerman, corresponding secretary. After the business of the meeting was disposed of, Mrs. Fred B. Jones gave two vocal selections, which were much enjoyed by all. During the social half hour, dainty refreshments were served.

An intensely interesting meeting was that of the current events and current literature section of the Ladies' Literary club, held at the club house Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The feature of the afternoon was a talk by the Rev. Elmer E. Goschen. The title, which was "The Social and Economic Conditions in the United States," in which Mr. Goschen told how he thought it unfair that some women had so much more than they needed, while others had to earn enough to exist on by washing and many other equally disagreeable occupations. As for an example of unfairness, said Mr. Goschen, "the fortune of Marshall Field, Jr., when he reaches the age of 21 years, will be as much as though he worked five hundred years at one hundred dollars a day." After the talk, election of officers was held as follows: Mrs. Klingender, chairman; Miss Jessup, assistant chairman; Mrs. Frank Anderson, secretary. The resolution against putting ten thousand carp in the Liberty park lake was introduced by Mrs. M. M. Johnson and was approved by all the members.

The musical section of the Ladies' Literary club will meet Wednesday morning, April 20, at the club house at 10 o'clock. This will be the annual business meeting for the coming year, and to arrange any further business that may come before that session. A full attendance is earnestly desired.

The closing musical programme of the season will be given by the music section Thursday evening, April 21, at the club house at 8:15 o'clock.
